The Abbotsford Branch of the Registered Music Teachers of British Columbia is a group of teachers working together to create performance opportunities and events to further the development of our students' musical experiences.

It is a privilege to have this organization where we jointly organize and fund these events. We would welcome other teachers in the city to join so that their students would also be able to participate in these activities. It is our desire to motivate and inspire our students and to challenge them to be the best they can be!

BIOGRAPHIES

Catherine Anne Bundt is a graduate of the UBC Piano Performance program where she studied with Jane Coop and participated in master classes with Fanny Waterman, Menahem Pressler, Elly Ameling and Rudolf Jansen. She was a full scholarship student at the Banff International Centre for the Performing Arts where she studied with Marek Jablonski and later completed two years of further studies with Lee Kum-Sing, again at UBC.

Catherine is a teacher, Senior RCM examiner, and adjudicator who strongly believes in the value of music in children's lives and sees teaching music as giving young students 'a gift for life'.

She is a BC Registered Music Teacher and served several terms on the South Fraser branch executive council and festival committees. In an attempt to make music accessible and affordable to her local community, Catherine has also hosted more than 35 "house concerts" in her home featuring performing artists from universities and music schools.

Catherine is a member of the Canadian Music Festival Adjudicators' Association and has adjudicated over 50 festivals, and given and workshops throughout the province. She is also a senior examining member of the Royal Conservatory of Music, College of Examiners, and has examined students across Canada and the USA.

Catherine presently maintains a private studio in Surrey, BC. where she lives with her (much-loved but nasty and aggressive) SPCA rescue cat, and thriving vegetable garden.

Sevilya Hendrickx-Rai was born into a musical family and was introduced to classical music and arts at a very young age. She received her professional education in two very culturally active yet different countries. The Russian Federation gave Sevilya a very traditional education in the best sense as well as some wonderful connections with world-renowned artists. In The Netherlands, she has been exposed to the baroque style as well as contemporary music and many other diverse ways of playing.

Sevilya earned her master's degree with distinction from The Royal Conservatory in The Netherlands. At the beginning of Sevilya's study at the conservatory she was invited by the Rotterdam Philharmonic Orchestra under the baton of Yannick Nézet Séguin to join them on a tour to France. She also was invited as guest principal viola by North Netherlands Symphony Orchestra as well as South Netherlands Philharmonic.

At a young age Sevilya became a member of Hague Philharmonic Orchestra. She performed in numerous most known concert halls such Concertgebouw in Amsterdam, Elbphilharmonie in Hamburg, the Theatre de Champs-Elysees in Paris, Philharmonie de Paris, The Grand Hall of the Moscow Conservatory, St. Petersburg Philharmonia, etc.

Sevilya settled down with her family in Canada in beautiful British Columbia a few years ago. Here she has been active as a performer and educator. In 2019 Sevilya became a member of the Vancouver Island Symphony. Sevilya is also the artistic director of Vancouver Island Conservatory of Music & Arts. Her vision for the school is an innovative music and arts education where everyone receives a customized learning experience. In 2022 she was invited to play guest principal viola of Vancouver Opera. In 2024 Sevilya was featured soloist with Vancouver Island Symphony.
